LAW ESSAY COMPETITION FOR STUDENTS

Parklane Plowden is a leading Chambers with premises in Leeds and Newcastle. Our shared vision is to 'make a positive difference in all we do' through expert advice and advocacy, excellent client care and by being the place where talented people want to work. We are committed to increasing diversity at the Bar generally, and Chambers specifically.

For your chance to win £250 and to be published on parklaneplowden.co.uk, as well as the University's website, just answer the following question, in less than 1,000 words, written in the style of a blog post:

What are the most pressing equality, diversity and inclusion issues facing the Bar today, and how can we overcome them?

Email your answer to: Leedscomp@parklaneplowden.co.uk

Submission deadline 25 March 2022.
